The whole team joins me to send you and your team our congratulations for excellent work!

This result testifies of the quality of the work you have done and which we have measured through three main criteria:

The notoriety of the programs: be known and recognized by recruiting companies and have an active approach towards them.

The salary of first employment after graduation: placement of your graduates in the best job positions on the market.

Student satisfaction: work on improving your programs by taking into account the feedback of your students.

After being certified by an official bailiff, the results are now available and published on www.best-masters.com

The single fact of being listed, will give these programs additional visibility among students, their families, HR professionals and Medias throughout their presence in our ranking outlets (websites, web-videos).

Each year we are delighted to notice that the ranked programs improve their image and therefore, their qualitative and quantitative recruitments.

I am pleased to inform you that you are allowed to use the Eduniversal Best Masters Rankings official logos in all your communication supports according to the Charter of Eduniversal. As for your official diplomas for each ranked program, please contact the Masters Ranking office.

Furthermore, you are now welcome to proceed with your pre-registration for the Eduniversal Best Masters survey 2015/16. Thus helping you to prove once more your academic excellence and the quality of your programs, by completing all the relevant information necessary for the establishment of the rankings.
